Background:

Reasons for joining:

Father, Elias J, a major, got him enrolled in military school. Harris fought in Afghanistan and Iraq and then was stationed in the Philippines for three years. A local boy from a village disappeared and Berger volunteered to take a team in to find him.
They found the boy alive and wedged into a small cave hiding out from some bipedal reptile supposedly extinct.

PROJECT THRESHOLD PERSONNEL

Berger was debriefed after but started asking questions. Ordered to forget it, but Project Threshold contacted him and he transferred service.

Operated under Captain Talbert for 17 missions over four years. Talbert killed in Arizona and Command promoted Harris to Captain and leader of DCT1

Personal Interests: Likes comfort food but he's disciplined about food. Listens to blues and some of the "old" bands like Creedence and Bob Dylan. Has good memories of watching baseball with his dad. Played baseball in high school.

Date last evaluation: March 10, 2022

Cleanser Interactions: Three times-see details

Details:

1) Lost a friend during his first year with Project Threshold.

2) Ran into some thing that absorbed people by attaching to their flesh—spooked Berger to the point he called for a Cleanser.

3) Giant spiders in the southwest. Had to save a young girl but the sounds the spiders made unnerved him.

Recommendations: Sound and no concerns at present.
